

ORF-ENTERPRISE UNVEILS NEW LIMITED SERIES “JONES”

Introducing “Jones”, a high-concept, cinematic series set to enrich ORF-Enterprise’s diverse collection of crime dramas.

VIENNA – ORF-Enterprise is thrilled to announce the addition of a captivating new title to their drama portfolio: “Jones” is a crime, investigation, and mystery series that promises to capture audiences with its unique storytelling and intriguing plot twists. Created and directed by award winning filmmaker Bruno Gascon, the series is set to redefine the genre with its innovative narrative and compelling characters.

“Nothing in Jones is what it seems. The dead speak, the living lie, and the truth hides behind layers of illusion. This is a series inspired by Agatha Christie, full of suspense, eccentric characters, and dark humor”, says Bruno Gascon, the creator and director of “Jones”.

EXPLORING “JONES”.

The series centers around a shocking murder during a luxurious family gathering in an exclusive location. A detective, endowed with the special ability to communicate with the dead, partners with Júlia, the sharp-witted victim, to solve her own murder. As they navigate a house full of liars, the question remains: Can the dead truly reveal the truth, or is the detective chasing illusions?

Set to be filmed in beautiful locations in Portugal, these breathtaking settings add a rich visual dimension to “Jones”. The series features a talented cast, including José Pimentão (known from “1899”, “Eric”), Laura Dutra (known from “Irreversible”, “After Everything”), and Ivo Canelas (known from “Glória”). Together, they bring a dynamic and engaging presence to the series, enhancing its captivating narrative.

“Jones” is crafted to engage fans of mystery and crime dramas, especially those who enjoy supernatural elements and dark humor. Its unique premise and complex characters offer a fresh and thrilling experience in the crime genre.
